

ATLANTA / HOUSE MUSIC DJ & PRODUCER

MATT SILLIMAN

Matt Silliman is an Atlanta house music DJ and producer who has been behind the decks since 1996. His sets move from deep, soulful grooves to high-energy tech house, connected by warmth, vocals, and a feel for the people on the dance floor.

Raised in Decatur, Matt came up through Atlanta's house scene with residencies at Karma and Eleven50. Through Feelgood House and events including Captains of Revelry and Beats on the Lake, he brings people together around music with soul and a welcoming dance floor.
